

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

MICHAEL CHARLES MEISLER,

Plaintiff,

vs.

NADINE CHRZANOWSKI, et al.,

Defendants.

3:12-cv-00487-MMD-WGC

ORDER

re: Doc. # 32

Before the court is Doc. # 32,<sup>1</sup> Plaintiff's motion requesting the court to issue a subpoena to require an alleged employer/former employer of Defendant Janice Tebo<sup>2</sup> to disclose Defendant Tebo's current address so that Plaintiff may effect service of his amended complaint on her.

Plaintiff's action against defendant Tebo is predicated upon a state law conspiracy claim as to Defendants Janice Tebo and Laura Sperry (Defendant Sperry supposedly conspired with Janice Tebo to violate his rights). (Doc. # 21). Plaintiff states a process server he has retained advised him Ms. Tebo "cannot be located." (Doc. # 32 at 2-3.) Plaintiff contends Ms. Tebo "is an indispensable party defendant, not only to the Federal claims presented but specifically as to the Second and Third Pendant Causes of Action." (Id., at 3-4.) While the court has skepticism that Ms. Tebo is an "indispensable party," as Plaintiff characterizes her (Doc. # 21 at 3-5, 9, 10-11), the court does not need to reach that issue at this time.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>3</sup> As this court noted in its Report and Recommendation (Doc. # 21), Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint "focuses on the fact that his cellular data was allegedly obtained without a warrant or court order." (Id., at 5; Report and Recommendation adopted by District Judge Miranda M. Du, Doc. # 22.) The federal claims against Ms. Tebo were dismissed and Plaintiff was allowed to proceed only on his common law conspiracy claims against Ms. Tebo. (Id., at 3-4.) Therefore, Plaintiff's characterization of Ms. Tebo as an indispensable party is suspect but again, need not be further addressed for the purposes of this order.

1 The court takes notice that Plaintiff was convicted of aggravated stalking of Ms. Tebo, a violation
2 of Nev. Rev. Stat. 200.575(2). He was sentenced to prison for a term of 12 years, with parole eligibility
3 after 2 years. The Nevada Supreme Court affirmed Plaintiff's conviction. Meisler v. State, 321 P.3d 930
4 (Nev. 2014). The Supreme Court's decision also noted that the protective order was issued by Ninth
5 Judicial District Court, Douglas County, Nevada, where Plaintiff was convicted. The protective order
6 was not part of the Supreme Court's decision. It was, however, entered into the docket of the Ninth
7 Judicial District Court as part of Mr. Meisler's Amended Judgment of Conviction. The court takes
8 judicial notice of the District Court's twenty year Extended Protection Order contained in the Amended
9 Judgment of Conviction, a copy of which is attached to this order as Exhibit 1. Under the terms of the 10 Extended Protection Order, Plaintiff is precluded from contacting Ms. Tebo "for any reason, directly or 11 indirectly, or through any third party." (Id., at p. 2.) Any intentional violation of this order, the District
12 Court ruled, would constitute a "category C felony." (Id., at 2, ¶ d.)

13 Because of the conviction of aggravated stalking of Ms. Tebo, and because of the terms of the 14 District Court's protective order, this court declines to issue a subpoena which might disclose to Plaintiff
15 the current address and whereabouts of the victim. Until the Plaintiff can secure a modification of the 16 Amended Judgment of Conviction, this court will not allow the issuance of a subpoena which would 17 appear to enable Plaintiff, even indirectly, to contact Ms. Tebo "for any reason."

18 Plaintiff's motion (Doc. # 32) is DENIED.

19 IT IS SO ORDERED.

20 DATED: March 18, 2015.
